HOLLYWOOD OFFERS LEAP YEAR LIST

Film Capital Has Many Attractive Bachelors

By International News Service

HOLLYWOOD—Nowhere in the world is there a better hunting ground for the girl who feels the urge to exercise her leap year privilege than the film kingdom of Hollywood.

Never before has there been such a crop of eligibles in the land where the stars shine in the day as well as at night. What's more, they are young men that any mama in the land would be proud to welcome as a son-in-law. And to make the prospect more pleasing it might be added that it would be less difficult than one imagines to hook one of these unattached gentlemen, because they seem to be of a most susceptible order. First, because most of them are younger than usual, and secondly because of the number of newcomers amongst them, who have not yet had time to acquire the shell of cynicism.

Like to look 'em over, girls? Here goes!

There's Joel McCrea. Well, there is Joel McCrea, Hollywood's idea of a prize matrimonial catch, affectionately called "Prince of Juveniles." Joel's youth, good looks and film popularity have made him one of the most attractive figures on the bachelor bandwagon. It is encouraging to know that he is not immune to the baits of Cupid, as it may be recalled that Constance Bennett had Joel's heart knocking like a Tommy-gun for several months before she married the Marquis de la Palaise. Joel still thinks that Connie is one of the loveliest girls in the world, so there's a chance for some little girl who thinks she possesses the "Bennett look" to catch the "Prince of Juveniles" on the rebound.

If Joel does not come up to the specifications you have mapped out for your ideal, here's another. He is James Dunn, a newcomer to movieland who rapidly attained stardom after his initial success in "Bad Girl." Jimmie is handsome enough to please the most fastidious, is 26 years old and they say, still unsophisticated. At present he appears more concerned with his screen career than with women, but he's at the impressionable age where a smart girl might turn the trick.

Gary Is Waiting

Then for the girl who likes the big hero of the outdoors there is Gary Cooper, just waiting to be snapped up. Gary has been on the bachelor list for several years. Rumor hath it that the glamorous Lupe Velez made his heart turn somersaults, but that's just a memory now and he's in circulation for the one who can slip a loop on him.

Ramon Navarro is another eligible who would be the perfect answer to a maiden's prayer. Ramon sings like an opera star and the lucky girl who finally wins him won't have to listen to any weird noises when he takes his matutinal cold shower. Ramon will say it with arias.

For the girl with old fashioned ideals, Buddy Rogers is made to order. Buddy doesn't believe in the ultra-modern, flask-toting girl. Though he is not in Hollywood at the moment, being engaged with Lo Ziegfeld's latest stage production, Buddy is included in the Hollywood list, as it was there that he won the admiration of female Young America.

Also Bill Haines

William Haines is still another ornament on the bachelor Christmas tree waiting for some good little girl to come and pick him off. Bill prefers the friendship of older women, but that does not mean that he wouldn't rather have the love of a younger one. So go right ahead, girls, bait your hooks.

Many other desirable broad winners are on the bachelor list and

His Stomach Trouble Healed At Last

After suffering for nearly eight years with a bad case of stomach trouble, which finally resulted in a perforated ulcer, Mr. Eschenback, Norwood, Ohio, reports that he was completely healed by a simple home treatment. He says he had spent thousands of dollars and had undergone a surgical operation, without any permanent relief, when a friend recommended the treatment which performed a "miracle" for him, and now he wants all other sufferers to know about it.

Mr. Eschenback advises all sufferers from stomach trouble, stomach ulcers, gas pains, acidosis (excess acidity), belching, pains after eating, constipation, sour stomach, poor digestion, dyspepsia and gastritis, to send their name and address at once to Unga, Inc., 1411 Foot-Schulze Bldg., St. Paul, Minn. This Company is offering the same treatment which produced such splendid results for Mr. Eschenback, to all stomach sufferers on 15 days trial at their own risk, also a free book explaining the cause and treatment of various stomach disorders, including stomach ulcers, testimonials, a sworn affidavit of genuineness and their $1000.00 Reward Offer. If you suffer write today.—Adv.

EVEN POTATOES NEED REST CURE

By International News Service

PARIS—It is not only human beings who need a good rest cure from time to time; potatoes do too, according to Mr. Constant, member of the French Academy of Science.

"The humble potato, he says, is subject to degeneration when it is reared in unfamiliar soil or is attacked by a certain virus. Both of these causes of degeneration can be effectively dealt with by sending the potatoes off to grow in a high altitude for a certain period of time. The mountain air is as necessary to them as it is to certain people."

The potato diseases are not cured by the high altitude, but the rest cure enables the seed potatoes to resist the attacking virus.

Hawaii's pineapple pack last year totaled 1,104,000 cans more than that of 1937.

"EXPERT MOTHERS" PICTURED AS RARE

Speaker in Kansas City Hits "Career Mothers."

By International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Does a woman obtain her fullest self-expression in the home or outside of it? The question discussed at an informal open forum of Kansas City women civic and social leaders revealed a varied difference of opinion.

Careers for women were defended by one faction, while others championed the advantages of home and children.

Mrs. Gary D. Cohn pointed out that motherhood should not be woman's only achievement. "We are no longer merely females, but women," she said. "A career, a self-expression outlet is a necessary safeguard against loneliness and boredom."

Mrs. Gershon Hadas leading the attack on the career seeking mother, declared that this country, with its high divorce toll, was bankrupt of expert mothers and expert wives.

"There is dullness in any job," said Mrs. Hadas, "and the most successful woman with a career will tell you that. Deep in her heart she knows that marriage and children are the finest and rarest treasures."

POSTHUMOUS HONOR IS VOTED AVIATOR

By United Press

SAN MATEO, Calif.—An airplane flight from famous Tanforan race track, which included the first landing ever made on the deck of a battleship, has brought posthumous award of a Distinguished Flying Cross to the late Eugene B. Ely, California aviator and auto race pilot.

The award was made by the United States senate.

The historic flight occurred Jan. 18, 1911, when Ely took off from Tanforan and landed on a platform on the deck of the cruiser Pennsylvania, in San Francisco bay.

A year later Ely was killed in a plane crash at Macon, Ga.

The flying cross, to be presented by President Hoover, will go to Ely's father, M. D. Ely, attorney of Leavenworth, Kan.

EAGLET'S DOUBLE

Excitement ran high in Berlin, Germany, police circles when it was thought that this little 17-months-old boy, Rolf Bohnen, was the missing Lindbergh baby. The child, shown at the police station, is said to conform to a remarkable degree with the description of the kidnapped child that was broadcast around the world.

COUNTY TAX DISTRICTS HAVE TOTAL BOND DEBT OF $2,115,869

THOMAS MAKES STATE REPORT

As for Finds Indebtedness Reduced $266,842 in Last Year.

COUNTY TOTAL IS LOW

1934 Will See Retirement of Nearly All Obligations of County Itself.

Indebtedness of all subdivisions in Marion totals $2,115,869, or $266,842 less than the aggregate debt of 1933, according to a report just completed by County Auditor Earl E. Thomas for the state.

Various subdivisions issued in new bonds during the year retiring $723,042.45, the report shows.

Heads the list of subdivisions with the amount of bonded debt with bonds totaling $1,450,628.61 outstanding. Of this amount $1,094,119.19 is general debt, collectable from taxpayers as a whole, and $356,509.42 is special assessments, which is due from owners of property benefited by a public improvement.

New City Issues

The city issued $153,429.70 in bonds during 1933 and retired $246,811.10.

Second in the volume of debt is the city school system, with bonds of $1,271,000 listed in the schedule. The schools issued $450,000 in bonds to retire a similar amount of short term notes during 1933, and retired $125,000 of other indebtedness during the same period the schedule shows.

The county general debt is down to the comparatively low figure of $150,350, the last of which excepting $43,000 in poor relief bonds issued last year under the Pringle-Roberts bill, will be paid in 1934 according to Auditor Earl E. Thomas. The county last year retired $84,702.53 of its general debt, he said.

The special assessment debt of the county, which is not a liability to the county as a whole unless owners of property benefited by a public improvement fail to pay their proportionate share of the cost of the improvement, amounts to $171,623.91. The special debt was reduced by a margin of $44,570 last year, and no new issues were authorized.

Debt of Districts

The county's 15 school districts have an aggregate debt of $568,250. Six of the districts have no debt. Prospect village district lists its debt at $110,000, the largest. Next in order are LaRue village district, $60,750; Green Camp village district, $55,500; Pleasant township rural district, $52,000; Montgomery rural district, $48,000; Clarendon township rural district, $35,500; Scott township rural and Morral village districts, $6,000 each; Agosta village, $1,500. Districts free of debt are Grand Prairie rural, Clarendon village, Waldo village, Marion township rural, Tully township rural and Richmond township rural.

Nine of the 15 townships have bonded debts. They are Salt Rock, $23,850; Grand, $19,055.28; Tully, $15,331.42; Bowling Green, $9,219.47; Clarendon, $9,066.58; Blue Island, $8,910.39; Richmond, $8,586.80; Scott, $8,661.92; Pleasant, $3,734.04.

Townships free from debt are Waldo, Montgomery, Grand Prairie, Prospect, Marion and Green Camp. Waldo is the only village in the county free of debt. The other seven have bonded debts aggregating $50,744.90, most of which is represented by outstanding bonds of $27,449.90 in Clarendon. Of the Clarendon total, $10,400 is general debt and $17,049.90 is special debt. LaRue lists total debts of $8,900, including $7,000 in general debt. Prospect has $6,000 in general debt. Morral lists a general indebtedness of $5,000. Green Camp, a general debt of $2,000 and Agosta a general debt of $1,250.

TEACHER AT 100
GIVES LIFE RULES

"Never Get Mad" Is One of Ten Commandments

PARIS. (U.P.)—M. Mareschal, oldest school teacher in France, allowed himself to be interrupted on his 100th birthday as he was sitting out on a 10-mile hike with an 80-year-old friend, to give his rules for longevity. He was anxious to be off on his jaunt, but recommended the following tenets in his doctrine:

"Live normally. Never get mad. Be gay. Get up between 7 and 10 a. m. Eat breakfast in bed, or the kitchen. Drink wine. Eat lots. Dip snuff. Sleep when and where ever you feel like it. And take a cold bath every day."

The secret of longevity, he said, lies in these 10 terse commandments.

"There were no school palaces in my day," he added, "like youngsters have now. We had basements, or a backroom in the town hall. Our system wasn't so great, but we taught all the families for years back in 1853, and we did a mighty good job of it, too" (came back in 25 years or so and I'll tell you some more).

How One Woman Ended Eczema

Severe Case All Over Her Body, But Now She Is Better.

Here is just another case of how Peterson's Ointment conquers the terrible itching of eczema after other treatments had failed. The same kind of a story comes from all over the country. After others fail Peterson's Ointment succeeds.

This letter from Charlotte Brannan, of Swansboro, Mass., is worth reading: "I used Peterson's Ointment and soap for a very severe case of eczema. It was all over my body. I have tried many things to cure it, but not one of them gave me a cure. I saw the ad. of Peterson's Ointment in the Fall River Herald and now I am better. I do not go without your ointment and soap in the house, and recommend it very much."

Get a box of Peterson's Ointment at any drug store in America for 35 cents—it won't disappoint you.—Adv.

NEW BARLESS JAIL IS ATTRACTIVE

By International News Service

NEW YORK. The old familiar phrase: "Home was never like this" will take on a new significance for most of the wayward girls who will occupy the new House of Detention for Women which has just been formally opened at New York.

Nothing more unlike a prison, yet functioning as such, has ever been built. Standing on a plot 84 by 200 feet, formerly occupied by the old house of detention, this modern limbo for erring ones resembles a modern apartment house on the outside.

The interior, too, is totally different from the old style prison. The institution embodies no atmosphere of prison life, and even those whom it is designed to shelter will be referred to as inmates and not as prisoners.

The building has 12 stories, the lower six of which comprise the prison (pardon) institution and the upper six will be occupied by the hospital.

Bars Eliminated
Iron bars have been eliminated from the windows and in their place are casement windows with cross sections of extra heavy, saw-resistant steel that form panes only 5 to 7 inches. These apertures are too small to permit the inmates to escape.

Not that anyone would want to escape from a safe haven where meals and bed are guaranteed in these hard times. Still, the law must have its little joke. All doors are manipulated from a central control board by means of push buttons.

This control mechanism is situated on the ground floor, where is also located the visiting room. Here, too, the old wire netting has given way to a glass partition inset with diaphragms that enable the visitor and inmate to converse but make the smuggling of articles impossible.

Modern Chapel
On the second floor is one of the most interesting features of this modern house of correction. It is the chapel. Decorated in modern style, the chapel boasts a revolving altar divided into three sections for Protestant, Catholic and Jewish service adaptation.

A modern laundry, immaculate kitchens and dining rooms occupy the third floor, part of which is called off as a balcony for the chapel. The kitchens are equipped in a manner equal to the most up-to-date hotel.

Housing quarters occupy from the third to the tenth floor. Each floor is divided into four wings having 16 rooms, not cells. The furnishings of these rooms are all fixtures. The old-style wall bunk has been discarded in favor of a modernistic bed. Each room has three clothes hangers. Unbreakable mirrors of steel are securely fastened to the walls. There is also a disappearing table in each room, which, when not in use, may be slid into a groove in the wall. Of course mildy's ablutions have also been provided for. A neat porcelain basin with hot and cold water adorns a corner of each room.

Glass Bullet-Proof
The panels of the doors in this luxurious jail are of bullet-proof glass. But it was explained that this precaution is not intended to prevent desperate inmates from shooting their way out. No, indeed. The non-breakable glass is used to circumvent any attempt from the outside to free an inmate.

Even the costumes to be worn by the erring ones who will sojourn in this novel house of detention are a departure from the hideous ensembles of other days. Though simple in the extreme, there's nothing repulsive in the smartly cut dresses which will be worn by inmates.

If the new idea in houses of correction should be enlarged to embrace male prisons, we may yet see a day when prison guards will be concerned more with keeping would-be inmates from breaking in than they will be with preventing prisoners from crashing out.

Cemetery Head Prepares History of Burial Tract

Interesting facts concerning the history of Marion cemetery were set forth in a special paper prepared by E. N. Sloan, superintendent, and read to the Marion cemetery association at its annual meeting Monday night in connection with the seventy-fifth anniversary of the association.

Marion cemetery would stand out in sharp contrast if compared to the cemetery Marion had before 1871, when the present association was organized.

SEVEN-YEAR ITCH ENDED

The itch (scabies) is highly contagious. If not treated it will continue for life. It is not a blood disease, but is caused by the itch mite, which burrows and forms tortuous galleries within the skin.

The itch mite spreads rapidly and is immune to ordinary treatment. The Exsora Institute has perfected a simple treatment called Exsora that kills the itch mite almost instantly and relieves you of your trouble in three days.

Tract Unkept
The old burial tract was surrounded by railroads and saloons.

The ground of the new cemetery was selected by J. S. Reed, John Ault and E. Peters. Soil tests and consideration of accessibility and ease of improvements entered into the selection. Forty-seven acres were in the original tract. It was dedicated Nov. 4, 1858.

H. O. Kessler was the first superintendent. One of the first events of importance in the history of the cemetery was the erection of a receiving vault at a cost of $2,500. This vault, reconstructed, held the bodies of President Harding and Mrs. Harding while the memorial was under construction.

Memorial Built
In 1888, the Soldiers' and Sailors' memorial was erected by the government at a cost of more than $14,000.

Financial problems faded into oblivion when an endowment fund was started in the early nineties. This fund now pays for the maintenance of the cemetery.

Superintendents succeeding Kessler, in the order of their terms, were A. B. Allen, John Dairy, John Wilson, F. J. Van Horn and E. A. Sloan. Mr. Sloan had charge of the cemetery 23 years. At his death two years ago, his son E. N. Sloan became superintendent.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, April 15

A PARTICULARLY lively and enterprising state of affairs may be predicted from the very encouraging lunar aspects. Under the high stimulus of Mars trine moon, assisted by the lunar trine to Mercury and a Neptune sign aiding and abetting much initiative, new undertakings and adventures, all under the benign and happy cooperation of Jupiter, assisting to friendly advantages and fulfilled ambitions. It is a time for pushing in all directions, with speculation and investments safe.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of great opportunities and advantages. With the energies, faculties and ambitions under high stimulus it is a time to push to high goals with promise of success, either in speculation, investment, new enterprises, with personal initiative and practically as well as friendly aid. A child born on this day should be splendidly equipped in mental, practical, personal and social energies and graces to attain his position, prestige and popularity in life. It may reach renown and wealth through its combined personal endowments.

Lost Ugly Fat

Her Husband Says She Looks Five Years Younger!

There is a certain weight at which every woman looks her loveliest—not skinny underweight nor pendulous overweight, but normal weight. We, find artists, doctors, theatrical producers (and husbands!) all agreed upon this point. "My husband says I look five years younger," writes this lady of 29 who—thanks to her daily dose of Kruschen Salts—has unburdened her body of 65 pounds of ugly fat. Read her letter:

"Having heard from a friend of mine that she lost considerable weight since taking Kruschen Salts, I started using them in July when I weighed 177 lbs. I have lost weight steadily since then, and am now 150 weight. Moreover, I feel brighter and more energetic in every way. I have inquired of my druggist my measurements which in August last were Bust 40, hips 48½, waist 33½ inches which is normal for my height, which is 5 ft. 3 in. My age is 29. My husband is a very severe critic. He says I look five years younger. There is no other reason for my loss of weight except Kruschen, as I do not take any particular diet."

(Mrs.) R. E. London, England. A bottle of Kruschen Salts that will last four weeks costs but a trifle—take as directed every morning. When the jar is empty get on the scales and see how many pounds you have lost. Attention to diet will help—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

But remember this: to take off fat harmlessly and SAFELY be sure for your health's sake that you ask for and get Kruschen Salts. Get them at Henney & Cooper or any druggists in the world and if the results one bottle brings do not delight you—do not joyfully satisfy you—why money back.—Adv.

East Side Mother Singers To Give Operetta Friday

The operetta, "The Persian Princess," which the East Side Mother Singers will present Friday at 8 p. m. at the Thomas A. Edison Junior High school, is the most ambitious undertaking the group has made since its organization. Mrs. Charles E. Turley is directing the operetta.

Mrs. C. W. Marriot and Mrs. Ray Williams are in charge of the ticket sales. Assisting Mrs. Turley are a group of sub-committees arranging for costumes, scenery, make-up and the business of production. Mrs. Dale Yarnert will play the accompaniments.

The story concerns a Persian princess whose horoscope, cast by astrologers at her birth, gave omen that she could not survive the noon of her seventeenth birthday unless by some means she could remain unkindled until the moment had passed. The action centers around the efforts of the court to make her confess that she must have been mistaken about the date. Romance, in the guise of a prince, enters the story.

Mrs. Richard Swigart will appear in the role of "Princess Zobeide," about whom the story revolves. Tickets may be secured from any member of the East Side Mother Singers or from the ticket committee.

A Reasonable Conclusion.

The disarmament conference at Geneva is back at work again after a three-week recess
 over the Easter holiday. What can it do?

When it opened last February guns were roaring in the Orient. They are quiet now, with few exceptions, but even so there is mockery in talk about disarmament so soon after hundreds of victims of war have been laid in their graves. Nations are a little less than half-sincere, through no deliberate fault of their own. They talk disarmament; they mean regulation of armament.

Like France, they are all concerned primarily with security. Unlike France, they are willing to go half way toward believing that the way to guarantee security is to start to disarm. The United States proposes abolition of tanks, mobile heavy artillery and gases, for instance. To this, France replies that the only solution of the common problem confronting nations is to place all armament at the disposal of the League of Nations, which would be empowered to use it against aggressor nations.

Americans find it difficult to reconcile the French attitude with the French reputation for holding a realistic viewpoint in international relations. The League of Nations has demonstrated within recent weeks that it can not act against an aggressor nation, for many reasons. Chief of them is the selfish interests of various members. The dream of powerful nations turning their armaments over to such an organization to be used for punitive purposes is too fanciful for serious consideration.
 The divergent viewpoints of France, the United States and Germany, for instance, typify
 the greatest difficulty in the disarmament conference's path. They are so far apart that delegates can not get together in discussions.
 Nothing has been accomplished by the conference since it convened February 2. It begins to look like the most it could achieve would be to spread the conviction that, since security is the universal necessity, armament races, though expensive and very often futile,
 are the only means available to meet that necessity.

Have You a Vacant Lot?

The announcement by Secretary Brown, that more than 300 persons had signified to the Marion chamber of commerce their desire to use the use of vacant lots or other idle portions of land for garden-making purposes and that less than a dozen lots had been proffered, offers ground for decided surprise.

In the light of the fact that vacant lots were so freely offered during the time of our participation in the World war and so profitably used for garden purposes, the assumption was natural that there would be no lack of offering at this time, when the need for them is far greater than it was then.

If lots can be secured by the applicants, they will afford employment to men out of work which will prove profitable when their plantings mature and produce, and thus help solve a welfare problem. Lots thus utilized will prove just so much clear gain the coming summer and fall and assist those out of work to carry on.

Citizens owning vacant lots or other ground
 out of use which can be transformed into vegetable gardens, and all those having garden seeds they can spare for the use of those less fortunate, can manifest a commendable degree of civic patriotism by ringing up the chamber of commerce—phone No. 2277—and giving notice of the fact.

The time for garden-making is at hand. Already many are preparing the soil for plantings. Thus it is that those in position to aid in this fine work should let their willingness in that regard be known as speedily as possible; the sooner, the better.

It would be fine to be in position, a few days
 hence, to announce that the appeal for the use of vacant lots and for supplies of seeds had been given such generous response that all the jobless who had made applications had been supplied.

Senator Fess congratulated three women prohibition repeal advocates, who called on him yesterday, on "taking a stand rather than straddling." Possibly there were more such commendation of honest opinion such as this
 of the senator, there would be far less straddling.

While the completion of the tomb of the "Unknown Soldier" was somewhat delayed, the result justifies the delay. The monument over the grave in Arlington cemetery, across the Potomac from Washington, is notable not alone
 for the simple beauty of its design and its execution, but also for the massiveness of its construction, its main section being the largest piece of marble ever quarried in the country,
 having originally weighed fifty-five tons.

Pan-American Day.

Americans sense that the significance of Pan-American day, which is being observed in all republics of this continent today, is mainly among their neighbors. And in doing so, they feel the need once more for a name by which they may designate themselves without offering unintentional insult to other Americans.

Pan-Americanism, or continental unity, could be appreciated better if it were absent. Without it, the United States would have even more trouble protecting its interests in some of its neighboring republics than it has now. With it, and by the simple and justifiable means of playing politics on a continental scale, everything is so peaceful that few people bother to think about what conditions might be like if American republics couldn't get along any better than the nations of Europe do.

It is fitting that the United States, the big frog in the continental puddle, should act as monitor in the minor squabbles that must be prevented from developing into first-rate fights.
 Ideally, it would be pleasant to let the fiery little republics to the south take care of themselves. Practically, it would be disastrous.
 Pan-American union, therefore, is well described as a means of combining idealism and practicality so that a minimum of offense may be given.

Observance of the day will be taken seriously
 by all who understand its significance as a symbol, which excludes most citizens of the United States. Pan-Americanism, never having meant anything but friendship, or what passes for friendship in diplomacy, doesn't mean any more to the people now that a day has been set aside for its celebration than it has meant as a state policy since the time of James G. Blaine.

The senate foreign relations committee has rejected, eleven to eight, the Pittman resolution proposing to ask for an interpretation from other signatory powers of the meaning of the Root protocol for American adherence to the World court. It's refreshing to have the committee thus turn down a proposal which had all the appearance of having been made not so much for real enlightenment as for the purpose of delay.

Twenty Years Ago.

Twenty years ago tonight a luxurious steamship was cutting along through the ice fields off the coast of Newfoundland. It was her maiden trip. Her officers were elated because there was the prospect of making a new record for the crossing. Her passengers were in holiday mood. They were crossing the Atlantic on the most modern ship of the day.

At twenty minutes to 12 there was a slight
 jar. The ship turned sharply to port and a few lingering on deck saw a huge mountain of ice slip by in the darkness. But no one was worried. Many did not know that anything had happened. Gayety continued, while the ships officers and crew appraised the damage.
 Wireless signals were sent out when it was disclosed that the ship was hopelessly disabled. Followed then the captain's orders: "All passengers on deck with life preservers." Then started the story told so many times of the sinking of the Titanic—greatest sea disaster of modern times. Fifteen hundred and seventeen went down with the ship.

That was twenty years ago. Since then there has been progress almost past comprehension
 in the mastery of the sea for commercial uses.
 No seafaring man has ever forgotten the Titantic disaster.

BLIND MAN'S BUFF—"TAG, YOU'RE IT!"

Editorial Opinion.

HOLLYWOOD AND HAPPINESS.

Again the British voice seems to have risen against Hollywood. Noel Coward, composer-playwright, is the latest member of the imported literati to leave there in more or less of what is known as a "huff." Also the sixty-six-year-old Rudyard Kipling's newest book of poetry, just published, contains a poem conceded to be a direct jab at this place where the "captains of empire daily born" have their plinths "laid at midnight and whose streets are packed at night, and here come tired youths and maids that feign to love or win in tones
 like rusty razor blades to tunes like smitten tin."

"The grievance of Mr. Coward was summed up in a remark that he doesn't want to become rich; he wants to be happy. Of course, the American stage has helped to make him fairly well-to-do. But leaving money out of the discussion, he didn't like the early rising, the hurried meals, the punching of a time-clock, and the "rabbit hutches" in which scenario writers have to work.

Since there are two sides to every story, we might suggest that it has been the tenacity of every author and every actor to look toward Hollywood as the promised land. Gold they have sought as an acceptable substitute for milk of human kindness, and the safety money of adulation is there. Neither Mr. Coward nor any of the poets whose eyes have been turned toward the Mecca of the West could really claim with straight faces that "uplift" has been their sole purpose in journeying thither. It is noteworthy that only after Mr. Coward's disillusionment did he decide that he didn't want to become rich.

On the other hand, Hollywood and its rulers have certainly not been without fault. There is very little, if any, more altruism in their attitude toward the industry they have created and which they ballyhoo to the public than exists in the minds of those who have regarded it as a harem. Hollywood is by no means the home town of Emily Post, for one thing.

By and large, the average citizen would certainly be content and thankful that he has never heard the "call" to the gold coast, the coast of the silver screen. Hollywood and happiness evidently have little in common.—Toledo Blade.

SWAPPING ANIMALS.

In Frederick A. Cook, who did quite a bit of exploring in both the Arctic and Antarctic regions, even if he didn't really reach the North pole with one sled and a package of gum drops, comes forward with an interesting proposal. He urges a swap of animal life between the North and South polar areas.

For example, he would bring a few polar bear families down from the North and turn them loose on the Antarctic ice cap. The polar bear can live anywhere there are seals. As there are seals in the Antarctic, probably a capable hard working polar bear could make a good living in that region. For that matter, Dr. Cook's suggestion includes distributing some of the Arctic variety of seals in South polar waters. He also thinks walrus might thrive there.

The Antarctic could make a return contribution. It has billions of penguins, a bird which has the merit, from the food supply angle, of being rather easily captured. The penguins would get a living out of the sea and white foxes, polar bears, etc., would live on the penguins.

Then there is the general public to be considered. The Antarctic continent has an area of some three or four million square miles.
 Byrd and others are going to keep on exploring it for a long time, returning to give lectures and show movie reels. A few bear stories would add much to the recitals. And while a walrus is not exactly a handsome animal, he certainly adds local color to any ice scene.—

Health and a Clear Skin.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

I believe that common skin disorders cause
 more distress than any other human ailment.
 There is no physical pain. The distress is caused by embarrassment and mental anguish.
 In a healthy, well nourished individual, the skin is smooth and free from sores and pimples. This healthy condition of the skin is maintained by proper action of the internal organs.

Minor skin ailments are caused by digestive disturbances, faulty elimination, lack of proper food and exercise and overindulgence in sweets.
 The individual element enters into this problem. We are not alike. Food which causes skin eruptions in one individual does not harm another. Some persons are sensitive to sea food and others are not.

Medical authorities agree that constipation
 is a common factor in most skin disorders.
 Poor elimination permits poisons to accumulate within the body. The skin aids in excreting poisons from the body by means of the sweat glands. When too heavy a strain is placed upon the skin the complexion is impaired.

If you are sensitive to certain foods you should avoid them. The diet should include plenty of fresh vegetables and fruits. Avoid all fried and greasy foods, sweets, pies, pastries and condiments. Drink at least six to eight glasses of water every day. A daily bowel elimination is essential.

The skin should be kept clean by daily bathing. It is best to use a pure non-irritating soap and warm water. This keeps the pores clean and allows for normal excretion of sweat and waste products.

Within recent years there has arisen the belief that many disorders are caused by infection. This infection may come from the mouth, teeth, nasal sinuses, tonsils, gall bladder, appendix or any other organ in the body.

Do not be satisfied to apply ointments to the skin. For complete cure in these cases removal of all points of infection. Infected tonsils should be removed and all infected teeth extracted. Even though pain is not present, have the teeth X-rayed to determine whether they are infected.

Persistent skin disorders should be treated by a physician. Advice given you by friends is well meant, yet it may do more harm than good. Each case of skin disorder requires individual attention.

Bear in mind that there are hundreds of forms of skin eruptions. They are caused by different things and require different treatment. For example, acne, an inflammatory condition of the skin, makes up about seventy per cent. of all skin diseases. There are many varieties of acne, each being treated by a definite method. No one treatment is applicable to all types.

Cleanliness of the body, inside and out, will go far towards giving a good skin. Simple food and hygienic living are important.

Paris Opera Director Resigna.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

Paris, April 14.—The renowned Paris opera
 may shortly close its doors because Jacques Rouché has resigned as director, asserting he is tired "of producing grand opera on a song."
 Although the opera receives a governmental subsidy of about $800,000 a year, Rouché, during the fifteen years of his regime, is reported to have spent nearly $1,000,000 of his own to make ends meet.

He decided to walk out on March 31 upon being refused an increase of $100,000 a year to meet monthly deficits of $10,000. It is also understood he was embittered because the opera house has not undergone alterations since 1875, when it was completed and today lacks elevators, running water and a rehearsal room.

The famous Great staircase may glitter with nobility and bourgeois society; the five-ton chandelier may shine on as brilliant an assemblage as can gather under one roof in Europe,
 but in Rouché's estimation the institution almost has grown to be "a beggar's opera."

His resignation was accepted in an acrimonious communique from the ministry of beaux arts and the government immediately assured temporary continuation of grand opera at the "National Academy" by persuading 800 persons comprising the opera's personnel to accept a wage cut.

The reduction in salaries is a private arrangement, but it was revealed that the annual payroll has been about $400,000 or an average salary of $500 for each performer. Stars received an average minimum of $1,000 a month.

It is feared the opera can not be kept open long unless the government finds a new director who can operate on the present subsidy of partly finance productions out of his own pocket.

Rouché has sympathizers and antagonists.
 He is a manufacturer of perfumes and an elderly man. Friends and critics concede he directed the opera chiefly as a hobby. His friends accuse the government of being parsimonious, and point out that Germany spends $8,000,000
 a year on the Berlin opera.
 Critics attack the quality of his programs and allege he frequently engaged mediocre foreign singers and dancers.

Hayes in College.

BY J. H. GALBRAITH

The insights that the college classmates of noted men are able to throw upon their characters, is always interesting and urgently sought by those who write biographies. Somehow the impression prevails that at early stage, life is less artificial than it later becomes and the student's close friends see him as he really is.

A classmate of President Rutherford B.
 Hayes, when he was a student at Kenyon college, has contributed such information as to General Hayes. He says that Hayes was an all-round typical student and an outstanding one in all phases of student activities. He not only stood champion in debating contests, and in class sections, but on the cinder-path foot-racing was a principal college athlete sport then as well. He was of good physique, which he increased by regular and moderate exercise;

was always in good health—he said he could not remember that Hayes was ill a single day
 in all the four years of their college course—
 and naturally his outlook upon life was wholesome and cheerful. His presence radiated optimism and good nature, and he had a fine sense of humor. He told a story well, and his stock always contained some pungent jokes.
 His life had trained him to endure, and he could take bad conditions with good grace.
 Boarding-house food was then, as now, the subject of a lot of student jest, but it is remembered of Hayes that while he joined in joking about the quality of the roast beef served, he ate it and seemed to thrive on it.

He never walked around anything difficult,
 but faced it and mastered it. He did not share his course along the line of least resistance as many students did. He did not have many chums, but was openly friendly with all his classmates and with the members of the student body in general. His outdoor exercises were "hiking" and fishing, and for indoor relaxation he turned to chess, his ability in the latter game overshadowing his success in military strategy.

Dinner Stories.

"Do you resent harsh and unjust criticism?"
 "No," answered Senator Sorghum, "not if it's sufficiently harsh and unjust to make fair-minded people feel sorry for me."

"Bill takes his golf seriously, doesn't he?"
 "He must. If he had a sense of humor he'd quit playing."

"You and your wife are partners in everything?"
 "With one exception," answered Mr. Meek-ton. "When it comes to cards each of us thinks the other plays a terrible game."

First Hobo—"What would you do, Bill, if you won the first prize in the big Sweep?"
 Second Hobo—"I'd have the blinkin' park benches upholstered."

"Yes," said the lordly young man, "I write poetry."
 The girl was impressed.

"How truly devastating!" she exclaimed.
 "Does your poetry yield any returns?"

"Yes," said the young man, sighing heavily.
 "It practically all returns."

"So you prefer flying to motoring—why?"
 "For one thing, there are no detour signs."

Said the teacher: "I give you sixteen chocolates to share equally with your little brother.
 How many will he get?"

"Six," said Bobby.
 "Nonsense!" You can't count."
 "Yes, I can, teacher, but my brother can't."

KIDNAP SUSPECTS WATCHED IN LIMA

LIMA, O. April 14—Suspicious actions of a man and woman with three children here last night caused police to make a search for them in the possibility that one of the children was the kidnapped son of Charles A. Lundberg.

The woman was carrying a curly-haired child, about 21 months old, and seemed to be making special efforts to shield its face with a blanket.

They stopped at a tourist camp and then went to a restaurant. At both places, the man tendered a $20 bill, which the proprietors were unable to change. Later, the adults and children returned in apparent haste to the camp, restored their baggage to an automobile and sped away.

SETTLEMENT OF GAS RATE FIGHT SOUGHT

Cities Confer with Utilities Commission To Speed Final Action.

A conference with the Ohio utilities commission relative to speeding up a settlement of the rate controversy with the Logan Gas Co. was being held in Columbus today by city solicitors representing six cities.

Although Marion is included in the list of cities engaged in the fight against increased rates, City Solicitor Carter Patton was unable to attend the conference. An unsuccessful attempt to communicate with city council was made by representatives of the gas company last year.

The Logan Gas Co. rate case has been before the state utilities commission and the supreme court since 1924. Last October the supreme court made its last order affirming the valuation fixed by the utilities commission and terminating the case to the commission to fix rates.

The solicitors feel that there has been unnecessary delay by the commission in fixing the rates and hope that as a result of today's conference the rates will soon be determined.

CONTROVERSY MAY DELAY P. O.

Sears Gets Letter from Postmaster General Relative to New Building.

Reverend to The Star

BUYRUS, April 14—Advising that any controversy over the site for Buyrus new $140,000 postoffice building might result in the indefinite postponement of erection of the building, a letter from Postmaster General Walter F. Brown was received Wednesday by Prosecutor J. D. Sears, in reply to a communication sent by Sears several days ago.

Mr. Sears wrote to the postmaster general asking whether a petition which has been in circulation at Buyrus for the last 10 days asking that the site be changed, would effect the present status of the building.

Opinion has been divided in the city as to the choice of a post-office site since it became known that Buyrus had been selected as one of the cities for which post-office appropriations had been made. The divided opinion came to a head two weeks ago when those opposed to the site which has been purchased at west Warren and Poplar streets, placed in circulation a petition asking that the site be changed for one more centrally located.

OHIO NORTHERN BUYS FACTORY

ADA, April 14—Ohio Northern university has purchased the bankrupt McCurdy Manufacturing Co. plant here and expects to convert the plant into engineering laboratories.

The deed to the property which was sold in bankruptcy was delivered to the university today, by referee Walter S. Jackson of Lima.

Ohio Northern offered a bid of $5,000 for the plant and equipment. The plant of the McCurdy Co., a wooden frame structure with sheet metal siding and a concrete floor, adjoins the right of way of the Pennsylvania railroad. It comprises a machine shop 40 by 50 feet, an assembly section 80 by 60, two stories in height, and a suite of modernly equipped offices.

Ohio Northern plans to convert the plant into a machine shop and laboratories for the college of engineering as soon as possible. Tentative plans are to move the present equipment owned by the university to the plant and to install electrical, mechanical, hydraulic, highway and materials testing laboratories.

ACTION DELAYED ON FEDERAL PAY SLASH

House Committee Awaits Hoover Proposal To Adopt Stagger System.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 14—The house economy committee today delayed attempting to decide on whether to continue to sponsor the McDuffie federal wage cutting plan, pending further information from President Hoover on his proposal to stagger employment.

The President was expected to send the information today so it might reach a decision before the house resumes consideration of the legislative supply bill, to which it had been planned to attach the McDuffie proposal as a rider.

The President's fulsome plan for federal employees is understood to have been revised to some extent overnight, following the White House conference late yesterday at which no agreement was reached.

Democratic house leaders decided to defer consideration of the legislative supply bill, pending an agreement in the economy committee on the salary cut matter.

This happened after a conference between Speaker Garner, Chairman McDuffie of the economy committee, and Chairman Byrns of the appropriations committee.

The payroll reduction question has been the stumbling block to progress on the government's $200,000,000 retrenchment program.

OLD BANK VAULT NOW RESTAURANT

Unusual Eating Place Opened in Prominent N. Y. Location.

NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Following the current mode for more "atmosphere" in Broadway restaurants, a new eating place has opened in the $125,000 safe deposit vaults of a former Chase National bank branch.

Situated in a basement on West 42nd street, interiorly decorated like a corner of the house of parliament, it is entered through a glistening circular steel doorway reaching from the floor to the ceiling. The 10-ton steel vault door now swung back, is three feet thick and bristles with gadgets which fit into the doorway. Its glass enclosed center is a maze of clocks, knobs and timing machinery.

The former emergency exit, a miniature of the entrance door now conceals a ventilation like keeping the waters, cooled like convicts, as cool as any permanent resident of Sing Sing.

High up on the walls are imitation barred cell windows and the ceiling, of six inch steel, has been darkened by the simple expedient of "smoking it" with lighted candles.

The room is known as "Guy Fawkes' Cell." Gunpowder barrels on the floor and dripping candles on tables complete the picture "Greetings, Prisoner" is the menu's salutation to the innocent diner, who picks up "Today's Prison Fare" signed by Warden D. A. Reese.

Customers sit around the walls formerly occupied by safe deposit boxes to ponder on the stacks of thousand dollar bills and gold pieces now piled "safe" away from public gaze. William Childs, restaurant man, is responsible for the new use of empty bank vaults.

SMITH SPEECH STIRS DEMOCRATIC RANKS

Party Leaders Weigh Probable Effect of Attack on Roosevelt.

Purchases of American goods considerably elaborated, this plan received an uncertain response, with much less applause than was volunteered by his utterances.

Earlier the group had been started by the proffer of a compromise wet plank from the dry state of Virginia. Former Governor Harry Flood Byrd proposed immediate amendment of the Constitution to make possible a direct referendum by the people to be held thereafter at a date unmarked by political contest, on the direct issue of continuing, abridging or repealing the 18th amendment.

This, with Smith's renewal of his urging for a states' rights plank, allowing states to remain wet or dry as they chose, was one of the few references to prohibition in the party proceedings.

The gathering of more than 2,000 coming at the end of a day replete with rallies, speeches and campaign planning, heard also Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the toastmaster, and John J. Raskob, the party's national chairman.

Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, the program for a speech, was not able to attend. The general tenor of the talks was an assault on the Republican administration, coupled with predictions of triumph for democracy this election.

Rescuer of Hundreds in Titanic Disaster Now Friendless, Alone.

SANTA ROSA, Calif., April 14.—Twenty years ago Charles Herbert Lightgholder, second mate of the liner Titanic when she struck an iceberg and sank with loss of 1,517 lives, was dragged from the chill waters of the North Atlantic and hailed as a hero.

Lightgholder was one of the four ship's officers rescued.

He personally directed the rescue of hundreds of men, women and children. After the disaster, Lightgholder joined the merchant marine.

1 DEAD, 1 WOUNDED IN OHIO MINE RIOT

Governor White Issues Order After Hearing of Clash Near Adena, O.

The invaders, believed to be union sympathizers, appeared at the mine village and attempted to persuade the miners not to go to work. The working men refused and the fight started. One man was thrown into a creek.

Pickets lined the roads leading to the mine and as miners and guard officers attempted to reach the workings they were stoned.

Another crowd of men at the mine mouth sought to prevent the miners entering. In a general disorder there, Kimbel was killed. Sheriff Wooster and his deputies bombarded the invaders with tear gas and the assailants beat a retreat.

National guard officers at the scene reported the riot to Gen. Henderson at Camp Perry in northern Ohio. General Henderson immediately contacted the governor, who is in Washington for a series of meetings. By order of the executive, General Henderson issued a command to the third battalion at Akron, to mobilize and stand ready to enter the strike district. It was indicated the soldiers would move in if there was further sign of trouble.

General Henderson planned to visit the Somers mine later in the day, making the trip from Camp Perry by airplane.

Two Men Arrested. Two unidentified men, charged with having participated in the riot, were arrested at Georgetown and taken to the county jail at Cadiz.

Sheriff Wooster and four National guard officers were overcome by tear gas after the rioting had been quieted, and were forced to take to their beds. The five officials had congregated in a small shed near the mine mouth to discuss the situation when a tear gas bomb was dropped accidentally.

A majority of the Somers miners went to work after the invaders were driven off.

The Somers mine has been working at a higher scale than other mines in the field. Union miners in the district have been on strike since April 1 as a protest against a wage cut. United Mine Workers leaders said the new scale, $3.50 for day work and 38 cents for tonnage, was a reduction of 25 per cent.

Since the strike was called there have been numerous disorders in the field, especially at the Muskingum mine near Zanesville, and the Millfield mine in the Hoskins valley. National guard observers have been in the field since the outset.

Company Places Blame on Outsiders

AKRON, O., April 14.—In a statement issued here today Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. declared the disturbance at its mine near Adena was inspired by persons not connected with the workings.

"Workers at the Wheeling Township Mining Co. mine are not and have not been on strike but attempts by outsiders are being made to prevent them from working," the statement said.

The Wheeling township mine has been in continuous operation for five years with no labor disputes of any kind.

County Supervisors Fined Dollar Each Time They Use Word.

By The Associated Press. LUDINGTON, Mich., April 14.—The word "depression" just isn't being used by the Macon county board of supervisors. It costs them $1 each time they utter it.

Frank A. Morse, Sheridan township supervisor, was the first victim of the rule. He used the banned word in a speech.

Supervisor Carl H. Abshacker immediately was on his feet. "Supervisor Morse used the word 'depression,'" said he, "and I demand he be fined $1."

Supervisor Ole Cline arose from his seat.

"And you repeated the word," said Cline, "so let's have a dollar from you, too."

Both men paid.

COMMITTEE HEARS PROHIBITION FOES

Author of Bill to Legalize Beer First Witness Before Senate Group.

By The Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 14.—The opinion that it is "impossible to make the descendants of generations of temperate drinkers believe there is anything morally wrong in drinking" was advanced before a senate committee today by Senator Bingham, Republican of Connecticut.

As the author of legislation to legalize beer and for a state liquor control amendment, he was the first witness before a senate judiciary sub-committee at the start of hearings on a number of proposals for change of the dry laws.

He was followed by James W. Wadsworth, former senator from New York, who represented the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. He said "development of the last few years" led the organization to believe its goal of prohibition repeal "is in sight."

The charge that the Eighteenth amendment has "financially ruined" and "is poisoning our national life" was made today by Mrs. Charles H. Sablin, head of the women's organization for national prohibition reform.

She said the "prohibition amendment, however noble in purpose, has failed. Those churches and temperance organizations which still support it, have become, all unconsciously, the chief allies and friends of the outlaw classes, and the time has come to end this unholy alliance."

Trap Recovers Stolen Jewels Worth $300,000

By The Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 14.—The Glemby gems, worth $300,000, have been recovered.

The gems, stolen last Jan. 21 by men who forced their way into the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glemby, were taken from two women arrested last night as they sought to dispose of the jewels for $50,000 to a policeman who they believed to be a Seattle "fence." Three men also were arrested.

Even when the women believed they were about to dispose of the jewels to the "fence," they tried to rob him, too; for the jewels were in a paper bag carried by one woman, and another bag identical in appearance, but containing crockery, was in the hands of the other. Police said the women after showing the jewels and receiving the $50,000, intended to switch the bags and give the "fence" the one containing crockery.

The jewels were located only after several detectives had taken jobs in a hotel where the women lived. After satisfying themselves that these were the persons wanted, the officers called in another detective who posed as a Seattle jeweler and became attentive to one of the women.

Those arrested identified themselves as—Helen Smith, 26, Ruben Golet, 43, Samuel Ippolito, 28, and the brothers, Anthony and Joseph Indelicato, 27 and 32 years old respectively.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly smart and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a "chick," bad taste and your breath is foul. Acid often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel drowsy and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

To take these good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "top and bottom" is to take a wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extract, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. Don't take any other liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. See all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

MANUSH IN STELLAR ROLE AS SENATORS TURN BACK BOSTON

Frankie Frisch Clouts Double To Score Winning Runs Against Pirates.

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
Where the rookies were shining in baseball training camps a few days ago, old established players are shining now in the first days of the major league campaign.

On Monday at Washington, it was Helme Manush, in his tenth season in the American league, who took the honors. Tuesday Babe Ruth, a man of the star, and yesterday Manush was back in the limelight, with several other veterans.

The other "big guns" who helped entertain the few shivering fans who saw the games of the season's second full day included Frank Frisch, Pat Malone, of the Cubs, an established star who is not far short of 30 years old. Al Simmons of the White Sox, who has been around a few years longer, and Lloyd Waner, somewhat younger, but a veteran of five campaigns.

Manush gave the Boston Red Sox a 6 to 0 victory over the Boston Red Sox. He hit a home run in the ninth inning with two on base to top off a four run rally.

Frisch hit a double with two on base to provide the champion St. Louis Cardinals with the runs that beat Pittsburgh, 8-8. The Cards had to score five times in that final rally after Pittsburgh had made three runs in the ninth.

Lloyd Waner started in the same game with three doubles. Thomas performed less sensationally on the mound but he pitched a steady game and received some great support from the White Sox both at bat and in the field. Although out of the Sox made it two straight over the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 3.

Cold weather stopped two games in the National league, where the Phillies were scheduled to play the New York Giants and Brooklyn

BISHOPS SEEK POST IN FIRST DIVISION

Epworth Club an Average Team, but Looms as Threat to Title Contenders.

Note: This is the fourth of a series of stories dealing with the 1932 prospects of the various city recreation baseball teams.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK Sports Editor, The Star

A group of fighting youngsters who have never learned the meaning of the word "beaten" provide the principal basis for the Epworth Bishops' hopes of making a good showing this season in the No. 1 Sunday school softball circuit. The Bishops wound up the 1931 campaign in fourth place, just half a game out of third and were in the battle for the championship until the final game of the season.

Unless some unlooked-for talent comes to the front before the opening of the season, the Bishops will open the 1932 drive with virtually the same lineup as in 1931. There will be one major shift, the loss of Bud Cram, the city's premier first baseman, leaving the initial sack uncovered. One or two changes also loom as possible in the lineup of the outer garden patrol.

Mautz To Pitch
George Hinklin and Eddie Mautz will make up the battery and Manager Jim Lingo has hopes of either developing a second pitcher out of some member of the team or of finding one somewhere else. Jack Jang, giant Harding High athlete, is a good prospect if he can gain some degree of control. He has speed but where the ball is going to finish up is a question when he turns loose a toss in the general direction of the plate. Mautz is a first class pitcher but needs some assistance. Hinklin will do a good job of backstopping.

George Johnson and Jack Ling was to play host to the Boston Braves, and one in the American league called for the New York Yankees to play the Athletics at Philadelphia.

Larry Madge of Cleveland and Barney Stephens of Buffalo will tangle in the second 10-round feature battle. These boys are both billed as hard punching boys who like to step in and slug it out toe to toe.

The supporting card tonight will be made up of Joe Pangallo of Galion vs. Ray Terry of Marion in a six round fight; Frankie Blue of Marion and Kid Kandell of Bucyrus in a four rounder and K. O. Rinker of Bucyrus vs. Billy Harry of Galion in another four rounder.

The first fight is scheduled to get under way at 8:30 p. m. Johnny Gerry of Marion will act as third man in all the fights.

An $18,000,000 Improvement—the new SINCLAIR REGULAR GASOLINE with its 70% increase in anti-knock (superior to some premium gasolines costing three cents more per gallon.)

and its quicker pick-up in traffic...

If it's a real motoring enjoyment you're looking for—if it's quicker pick-up in traffic, or more power for the hills, or surprising fuel economy—then try the new Sinclair Regular Gasoline.

Sinclair has increased the anti-knock quality of the new Sinclair Regular by 70% at a cost of $18,000,000 in new refinery equipment—making it actually superior in anti-knock to some premium gasolines selling at three cents more per gallon.

Watch how quickly this ace of high-test motor fuels puts your engine in motion on winter's coldest day—watch it get you away first in traffic—watch it carry you up over the hills without knock or a ping! Try a tankful today—the new Sinclair Regular Gasoline, stepped up 70%.

NOTE: For best results use either SINCLAIR OPALINE MOTOR OIL or SINCLAIR PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL. Both of these oils have not only been de-waxed, they have also been freed from petroleum jelly at as low as 60° F. below zero.

Marion Y Secretary Recalls Winning Trip Similar to Marion Travel Contest

Saw Same Places Marion District Tourists Will Visit in June.

Once upon a time, back in 1907 to be exact, a youth by the name of Earl N. Hale, living in Dayton, won a travel contest similar to the 1932 vacation travel contest which the Marion merchants, The Star and the Erie railroad is sponsoring for 14 high school boys and girls in Marion and 35 surrounding communities.

Hale, now secretary of the Marion Y. M. C. A., thought back over the 25 years the other afternoon and recalled the excitement and pleasure of his trip to Virginia and Washington, D. C. He was a senior student at Steele High school and entered the contest with a flock of impressive recommendations guaranteed to draw votes as millions draw files. The three Dayton newspapers, the Daily News, Journal and Herald, sent 27 boys and girls—five boys and 22 girls—on the same plan that the sponsors of the Marion contest are following. Merchants gave votes for merchandise and Hale, at the close of the contest, was third highest among the five boys who went from the Daily News.

"Contests like the one I was in and the one Marion is having are great experiences, not only for the winners, but for all of those who enter and endeavor to win," he said, speaking of the friendships that are made, and the people with whom the contestants come in contact while out getting their votes.

The three hundredth anniversary of the founding of Jamestown, Va., in 1607, was the occasion for the contest. The winners took a 10-day trip, visiting Jamestown, stopping at historic places of interest in Virginia, and going on to Washington, D. C.

Although it was 25 years ago that Hale made the trip, he remembers still the thrill of visiting Newport News, Fortress Monroe, Richmond, Va., Norfolk, Old Point Comfort and other equally historic cities and sites in the state.

Like the 1932 travel contest here, the boys and girls went with all expenses paid, stopped at the best hotels, traveled in a private Pullman car and had nothing to do except enjoy fully every minute of the trip.

BOYD BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER $14,627

Marion Man Charges Misrepresentation in Sale of Stock.

Suit for $14,627.20 damages for allegedly fraudulent misrepresentation in the sale of stock were brought by W. C. Boyd of 122 west Columbia street in common pleas court this morning against P. M. Kunz & Co. of Cleveland and George F. Currie, a salesman of the company.

Boyd asserts that, on the strength of Currie's representations that the Jones Clutch & Gear Co. of Upper Sandusky was out of debt, making money and had prospect for large orders, bought common stock in the company at three different times. Dates of the purchases and the amounts are listed as 200 shares on May 3, 1930, for $3,300; 300 shares on May 10, 1930, for $4,950; 300 shares on June 10, 1930, for $6,370.

The company carried a valueless item of $1,000,000 for patents and research in its assets, which he discovered was worthless after he had purchased the stock, he said. Because of the false representations, Boyd contends that he has been damaged to the extent of $14,627.20. The law firm of Jacoby & Jacoby represents Boyd.

Court Holds Hearing

Judge George B. Scofield in common pleas court yesterday conducted a preliminary hearing in the action of the C. P. & M. Electric Co. against John F. Probst, seeking condemnation of land for public utility use.

The preliminary hearing was held to satisfy the court that a question for its decision was involved in the case, and to hear the issues involved. Facts set up in the hearing are that the C. P. & M. Electric Co. and Probst have been unable to agree on the value of the land, located in the rear of the Probst Bros plant which the company wants for use in extending its transformer equipment.

A special jury will hear the case and determine the value of the property April 28 in common pleas court. The law firm of Donithen & Donithen represents Probst. Counsel for the electric company is W. P. Moloney.

New Trial Denied

Judge Scofield this morning overruled a motion for new trial in the case of Wallace R. Crissinger against the Hoosier Casualty Co. of Indianapolis, an appeal action. Crissinger recently obtained a $250 verdict against the company on an automobile accident insurance policy.

Action Dismissed

Action of the City Loan & Savings Co. to foreclose a chattel mortgage given by Henry A. Ebert and others has been dismissed from the common pleas court by Judge Scofield. The court also dismissed an attachment suit of the Credit Loan & Discount Co. against Rena L. Fitzgerald.

Issues Order

Judge Scofield has ordered the Marion Steam Shovel Co. to file a copy of the guaranty contract, on which its $30,000 suit against directors of the Marion National bank is based, with its pleadings in the court, and has given the directors leave to plead by April 16.

Will Present Play.

The Heidelberg college dramatic club will present the play, "A Servant in the House," Sunday at 7:30 p. m. at the First Reformed church. The religious drama was written by Charles Rann Kennedy, and is in five acts.

Eczema Prevented Baby From Sleeping. Healed by Cuticura.

"When my baby was a few weeks old eczema broke out in a rash on her cheeks. It cleared up after a few days and then broke out again. As time went on it grew worse, and she scratched so much that it used to bleed and disfigure her face for a while. It certainly made her cross and prevented her from sleeping many times."

"I was advised to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment and at once sent for a free sample of each. I purchased more and in four or five weeks she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Geo. Engelthaler, R. 1, Box 13, N. Hudson, Ind., June 24, 1931.
